"Historien skulle vara någonting enastående, om den bara vore sann."

Lev Tolstoj

"History would be something extraordinary, if only it were true."

Leo Tolstoy

The Greek god Hermes, on the day he was born, walked out of his cave in Arcadia to steal fifty cows from his half-brother Apollo. To fool his brother, Hermes led the cows backwards. Outside of the cave he encountered a tortoise, which he killed [ ] tying a few sheep guts across its shell he invented the lyre. He hid the cattle and returned to his cradle in the cave. Apollo soon suspected Hermes of the theft: who promptly denied it and began to play on his new instrument. Apollo was overjoyed and they agreed to trade the lyre for the cattle. In addition, Apollo gave his golden staff entwined by two serpents, which became his personal symbol. Hermes then wanted to steal Zeus' sceptre, Poseidon's trident and Aphrodite's belt. He thus became the god of thieves and imposters. He also became the patron of orators and merchants. With his golden staff he accompanied the deceased to Hades. As the messenger of the gods Hermes was depicted with a short robe and winged sandals, symbolizing speed. He therefore also became the patron of travelers and the bringer of sleep and dreams. His worshippers, in order to win power and fortune, have weaved numerous ideological and political traps to ensnare others. The Freemasons (Weishaupt, Marx and Lenin), who lured people with communism, needed Hermes' protection to hide its blood-soaked secrets. Like Hermes, today's demagogues hide the truth and mislead with rhetoric. Thus one may safely say that all ideological and political deceptions have been born in the 'Shadow of Hermes.'

The Creators of Communism

On Sunday, 13 January 1917, the Spanish steamship Montserrat arrived at Ellis Island, New York. On board was the international revolutionary Leiba Bronstein, notorious under the name of Leon Trotsky, and his family.

Trotsky began his voyage from Barcelona, Spain, on 25 December 1916. He traveled first class, not third class as the liar indicates in his memoirs. Trotsky's travel documents are still kept in the U.S. Immigration Services archives. In other archives is an invitation to America, which can be traced to his Masonic brother Jacob Schiff—Russophobe and chairman of the banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. (on Wall Street, New York).

Schiff had financed and trained international "revolutionaries" (viz. Jewish terrorists) from Russia, since 1890 in cooperation with B'nai B'rith (viz. Jewish terrorists), which took an active part in the "revolution" of 1905. Between 1900 and 1902, 10,000 revolutionaries (viz. Jewish terrorists) from Russia were covertly trained in the United States. Their mission was to return to Russia and crush the Tsarist Regime [sic.].

Schiff helped finance the failed coup d'état in 1905. This poor Masonic brother, Trotsky, immediately began begging for assistance in his mission to destroy Russia.

Trotsky first stayed at the posh Astor Hotel in Times Square: Later on, he and his family lived in a luxurious house at 1522 Vyse Avenue in the Bronx (with rent paid by Jacob Schiff three months in advance). In his memoirs, Trotsky again lies, describing his "worker's apartment" furnished with "electric lights, a gas cooking range, bath, telephone, automatic service elevator and even a chute for the garbage." Moreover, a free limousine with a chauffeur was provided for his use.

Trotsky later commented: "My only occupation in New York was that of revolutionary socialist."

He wrote a few articles for a small Marxist newspaper: Novy Mir. Its editorial office was located at 77 St. Mark's Place in the East Village, where-at worked Nikolai Bukharin and Moisei Goldstein, whose revolutionary name was Volodarsky. He also wrote for the Yiddish language Marxist newspaper: Der Forverts. Trotsky also gave speeches to indoctrinate Jewish émigrés from Russia and lectured at East Village's Russian Free University at East 7th Street.

In January 1917, Leon Trotsky became a member of the Masonic Order B'nai B'rith, which hadst earlier helped "revolutionaries (viz. terrorists) in Russia. Jacob Schiff took care of the contacts between the so-called "revolutionary movement" in Russia and B'nai B'rith.

As Leiba Bronstein, Trotsky had become a member of the French Masonic Lodge 'Art et Travail,' to which the swine Lenin also belonged. In 1920, the war criminal Sir Winston Churchill, also a Freemason, verified that Trotsky was an Illuminatus, as well. The following can be read in "The Secret Initiation into the 33rd Degree": "Freemasonry is nothing more and nothing less than revolution in action." Therefore, it is not so strange that Leiba Bronstein began to study Freemasonry and the histories of secret societies seriously (in 1898), and continued these studies during the two years he spent in prison at Odessa. He took notes amounting to over 1000 pages.

"Internationaler Freimaurer-Lexikon" reluctantly admits that Leiba Bronstein came to Bolshevism through this study of Freemasonry. Trotsky wrote in his memoirs "My Life": "It was during that period that I became interested in Freemasonry. For several months, I avidly studied books on its history; books given to me by relatives and friends in town. Why had the merchants, artists, bankers, officials and lawyers, from the first quarter of the 17th century on, begun to call themselves Freemasons and tried to recreate the rituals of the medieval guilds? what was all this strange masquerade about!?"

Gradually, the picture grew clearer. In certain branches of Freemasonry, elements of an obvious reactionary feudalism were prominent—as in the Scottish Rite. During the 18th century, Freemasonry became expressive of a militant policy of enlightenment, as in the case of the devilish Illuminati, who were the forerunners of revolution (viz. terrorism); on its left, it culminated in the Carbonari…

> "I wrote with tiny characters, excerpts from many books, interspersed with my own reflections on Freemasonry."

In 1886, the Statue of Liberty was a gift from the Jewish Freemasons in France—amongst them were the Frenchmen Frederic Auguste Bartholdi and Gustave Eiffel from the Grand Orient de France—to the Freemasons in New York. A smaller replica was erected the same year on an island in the Seine River (in Paris). Supposedly, it depicts the Roman goddess* Libertas, but it is actually the Babylonian Empress Semiramis, the so-called patron saint of the Luciferean Illuminati. In her right hand she holds a torch, help high, and in the left she carries the Declaration of Independence. The symbol of the Statue of Liberty is also the dove, Columbia. The general public has been connived into believing that 'the torch' symbolizes 'freedom'—but to the Freemasons it implies 'control' and 'manipulation.'

On 8 August 1884, the cornerstone was laid by the Grand Master of New York, William A. Brodie—with magical rituals (viz. Luciferean or Satanic rituals) conducted in the presence of thousands of American Freemasons. The Statue of Liberty was officially opened under the sign of Scorpio, on 28 October 1886—again in the presence of thousands of Freemasons. At such ceremonies [ ] the American Freemasons used corn, wine and oil (as always), harking back to Deuteronomy… which asks for sacrifices. The Freemasonic "sacrifice" was thus made using ancient symbolism to assure prosperity and bless important undertakings as Freemasons wish to maintain their leading role in the society of the future.

In the 1870s, the Grand Master of Rome, Adriano Lemmi, explained the Masonic tactics: "Freemasonry has as its aim to form and lead public opinion. It wants to influence government, which belongs to well-respected and powerful institutions. Therefore, it strives to place its own leaders in the security services, the legislatures, and in the highest political offices."

International capitalists (viz. Jewish bankers) wanted to start a "revolution" at St. Petersburg following Russia's defeat in the Russo-Japanese war of 1904-05. The chief organizer was the traitor Alexander Parvus, received two million pounds sterling from Japan to instigate the seizure of power in Russia. A total of fifty million dollars was invested in the Russian "revolution" of 1905. Japan supplied the 'revolutionaries" with weapons. Coordinating the "revolutionary" activities was Colonel Motojiro Akashi, former military attaché in Russia, while the Freemasons planned the events. The Jewish banker Jacob Schiff, in New York, ensured that no banks would lend money to the Russians. [Note: All banks are owned and controlled by Jews.] At the same time, Schiff supported (i.e., financed) "revolutionary" groups in Russia (viz. Jews and traitors). The international capitalists (viz. Jewish bankers) wanted to seize power in Russia… supposedly in the name of the workers. Behind these nefarious activities were the Jewish terrorists of the B'nai B'rith and other secret societies: (The headquarters of the B'nai B'rith are located in Washington, D.C.).

In 1905 the Red Terror assumed unprecedented proportions: Blood-thirsty Jewish fanatics began to terrorize and murder Russian folk indiscriminately. 50,000 Russians were killed or injured as a result of the "revolutionary" chaos in the years 1905-06.

In April 1906, the Tsar named Peter Stolypin Minister of the Interior and soon after he was appointed Prime Minister. Stolypin had no choice except to declare martial law in order to combat the Red Terror and the "revolting Jewish menace." Stolypin eventually brought an end to the Red Terror and the "Jewish revolution." 35,000 so-called "revolutionaries" (viz. Jewish terrorists) fled abroad—mostly to the United States, which became a sanctuary for the mass murderers. Peter Stolypin had control of the situation by June 1907.

Russia began to recover after the atrocities of Trotsky and Parvus. Stolypin's house was bombed on 26 August 1906 by Masonic radicals. The victims included visitors and soldiers—27 killed and 40 wounded. His daughter was blown from the house by the force of the explosion. She was lame for the rest of her life.

Stolypin's reforms were far-reaching. The newspapers were substantially allowed to publish what they wanted. All political powers were permitted. Both the army and navy were modernized. The British political scientist Bernard Pares also admitted that "the seven-year period 1907-14 must, from an economic perspective, without doubt be seen as the very best in all Russian history." During this period, the peasants came into possession of three quarters of the land.

After Stolypin's reforms, Russia began producing more grain than the United States, Canada and Argentina put together. 80% of the world's flax production came from Russia. Russia produced 40% of the world's grain and was known as the world's granary.

The Masonic leaders at St. Petersburg were becoming nervous. At 9 o'clock on the evening of 14 September 1911, Prime Minister Stolypin was wounded at the opera in Kiev by Mordekai Bogrov—a terrorist and police agent. This occurred in the middle act of Rimsky Korsakov's "Tsar Saltan" in the presence of Tsar Nicholas II. Stolypin was mortally wounded—and he died four days later.

Through this assassination, the dark forces (viz. Jews and Freemasons) were able to put an end to the Russian government investigation of their subversive activities. The Freemasonic Jews had previously attempted to murder Stolypin a total of ten times… on their eleventh attempt they succeeded.

In December of 1916, the Jewish Freemasons intensified their efforts in Russia and, in March of 1917, bread shortages were engineered by these traitorous swine—triggering further violence.

> "Conspirators, that is the Freemasons, used the shortage of bread in Petrograd [ ] on pate of the fact that there was plenty of bread in Russia at that time."

On March 12th, the coup d'état known as the "February Revolution" occurred. Three days later, on March 15th, Tsar Nicholas II, in Pskov, faced with the possible killing of his entire family, abdicated under extreme duress: The crown was passed to Tsar Nicholas' youngest brother, Michael; the Jewish Freemasons, however, were determined to crush Tsarist rule—and Michael was forced to abdicate the very next day. The Freemason, Pavel Milyukov, who became foreign secretary in the Jewish Provisional Government, admits in his memoirs that the February coup was a Masonic plot.

The naïve public was overjoyed, but as the new Jewish Masonic government initiated a huge wave of terror against all opposition, their smiles froze—and were replaced by shocked grimaces. The first victims were 4000 policemen. The crowds, worked into frenzy by the God-damned Jewish swine, seized them and beat them to death and dragged their corpses through the streets. Then the killing of officers began… amongst them was Admiral von Wiren.

On the second day of the coup, Alexander Kerensky had all the criminals in the prisons released. There were tens of thousands of murderers and thieves thus released in Petrograd. The prison gates in other cities were also opened wide… and then the anarchy commenced. Mobs of criminals broke into warehouses, shops and railway carriages. People were murdered and robbed. Kerensky was made secretary of the Russian Judeo-Masonic Supreme Council and leader of the Grand Orient of Russia.

> "That nearly all of them were Freemasons is without a doubt, which means that it was a Masonic plot."

The trail of documents leads us, once again, here—to the headquarters of the Grand Orient in Paris.

In the spring, the Provisional Government received aid of 1 million dollars from Jacob Schiff's bank: Kuhn, Loeb & Co., as well as other funds from other Jewish banking interests. And Schiff began to finance Leon Trotsky so as to implement "the second phase of the revolution." Colonel Edward M. House, a very influential advisor of President Woodrow Wilson, ensured that Wilson quickly (and illegally) had an American passport issued to Trotsky, so that he could go back to Russia and accomplish a take over.

The Wall Street banker Paul Warburg, a Jew, became Trotsky's political patron. Normally, an American citizen could be expected to do everything to support the allies of the United States in the Great War and work against Germany to save the lives of American soldiers. But that is not the way Paul Warburg and his adherents saw it. They were determined to destroy Russian sovereignty and establish a communist slave regime in its place.

Wall Street and the Bolshevik Revolution by Anthony Sutton

According to the State Department's documents, Jacob Schiff, who was a member of the Judeo-Masonic organization B'nai B'rith, and his companions: Felix Warburg (brother of Paul), Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, Isaac Seligman, and others—all Jews—had made plans as early as 1916 to overthrow Russian Tsar Nicholas II. In April 1017, Jacob Schiff himself officially confirmed that it was through his financial aid to the terrorist Jewish revolutionaries that the Tsar had been compelled to abdicate.

Why this ill will? To answer that… we need to briefly examine the real history of the United State

II

Resistance against British attempts to tax its colonies in North America was not the real reason for the American Revolution. The truth is more unsettling than that! The Judeo-Freemasons needed a base for their international criminal activities… hence, American Freemasonry was used during the 18th century to protect their organized criminal enterprise, which included opium smuggling, piracy and, later, slave trading—as well as to deceive the goy and rewrite history.

The United States was not founded on ideals of freedom and democracy. The Judeo-Masonic families of the Roosevelts, Morgans and others have hidden their heinous pasts as opium smugglers and pirates. Originally, hundreds of thousands of White European people were kidnapped and transported to the Americas as slaves. Benjamin Franklin, a member of the infamous lodge Les Neuf Soeurs (The Nine Sisters) of the Grand Orient (q.v.), coined the slogan: "Join or die." All thirteen colonies were forced to form a union, symbolized by the serpent. This can be seen in the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

During the French Revolution, The Nine Sisters used a similar slogan: "Be my brother or I will kill you." The Nine Sisters closely cooperated with the Illuminati, which operated under the name of the Jacobins. (The Illuminati Order was founded by Adam Weishaupt in 1776 at Ingolstadt, Bavaria.)

The Jacobins wore red Phrygian caps like freed Roman slaves, to show their revolutionary spirit. The Illuminati influence can be seen everywhere in the American capital: in the Library of Congress, the National Archives and in the White House. George Washington tried to restrict the Illuminati influence—but without success. Moreover, one of the real causes of the American Civil War was that the Freemasons under Albert Pike tried to establish the world's greatest slave realm, including Cuba and Mexico, calling it the American Confederation—with its capital at Richmond, Virginia. The various lodges acted in concert to bring this about.

In November 1860, Abraham Lincoln, a non-Masonic republican, was elected President, much to the dismay of the Jews and Freemasons. As he entered office at Washington, D.C., he immediately became the target of an assassination attempt. A second attempt involved his own Secretary of War, Edwin Stanton—a Freemason. Then the Masonic leader Albert Pike chose another solution to the problem of Lincoln—"civil war"—which started on 12 April 1861.

The opposition had been pressuring the President to establish a central bank (controlled by international Jewish bankers), which Lincoln was against. Turning to Russia for help with the Jews, Tsar Alexander II sent his navy to aid Lincoln, which now also joined in the war. The Jewish Freemasonic cabal hated Lincoln for crushing their great dream of a global slave realm… but they hated the Tsar even more, swearing vengeance against the Holy Romanov family. Five days after the end of the Civil War, on 9 April 1865, their agent, John Wilkes Booth, a 33rd degree Freemason, fatally shot President Lincoln in the Ford Theater, The following year, an attempt was made on the life of Tsar Alexander II.

After the Civil War, Albert Pike was tried for treason and sentenced to prison.

The Judeo-Freemasonic war-mongers turned to President Andrew Johnson—a 4th degree Freemason. On 22 April 1866, President Johnson pardoned Pike—and, the very next day, Pike paid him a visit.

On 20 June 1867, President Johnson rose from the 4th degree to the 32nd degree within the Scottish Rite.

The White House had been modeled on the former Masonic mansion in Dublin, Ireland.

Obelisks are associated with sacrifice. The Masonic obelisk is composed of 14 sections with the Illuminati torch (or Flame of Lucifer) at the top. It was raised in 1941 at Dealy Plaza, in Dallas, Texas, near the place where President John F. Kennedy would be fatally shot on 22 November 1963 (under the sign of Scorpio). The obelisk is situated on the 33rd parallel.

On 4 June 1063, almost six months earlier, President Kennedy had signed Executive Order No. 11110, which returned the power to issue currency to the government (without using the privately-owned Jewish Federal Reserve). Furthermore, Kennedy wanted to withdraw American military advisors from Vietnam, and also to prevent the terrorist State of Israel from producing nuclear weapons, thereby making an enemy of Judeo-Freemason David Ben-Gurion—a war criminal and terrorist mass murderer—the Prime Minister of Israel.

Furthermore, there was no way for the unskilled marksman, Lee Harvey Oswald, to have fired off three consecutive shots, including two hits (from different angles), within 5-to-6 seconds from his supposed hiding place on the sixth floor of the Elm Street book depository, in Dallas. District Attorney Jim Garrison of New Orleans believed that at least three different snipers had been involved in the assassination. The uncensored pictures of the tragic event reveal that President Kennedy was hit by more than two shots, of which, at least one bullet, had been fired from in front of the Presidential motorcade. The scapegoat, Oswald, was soon killed. And Kennedy was quickly replaced by high-ranking Freemason Vice-President Lyndon Baines Johnson, who did everything in his power to conceal the truth behind the murder.

III

Captain William Morgan discovered how utterly vindictive the Judeo-Masonic cabal really was… whilest holding a central position in his Lodge, No. 433, at Batavia, New York, he had learned many of their terrible secrets. He travelled around the United States, attempting to warn other Masonic Lodges about the Jews. In 1826, he explained that it was his duty to warn the public of the secret plans for world domination by the Jews and Freemasons. Morgan signed a contract with publisher Colonel David C. Miller to expose the hidden activities of Jewish involvement in the Masonic leadership. The Judeo-Masons had Morgan kidnapped and drowned in the Niagara River: (In 1860, one of the conspirators, John Whitney, confessed his involvement in the crime to his physician on his deathbed).

In 1882, a monument was erected in Batavia in honour of William Morgan: "a respectable citizen of Batavia and a Martyr to the Freedom of writing and speaking the Truth, who was abducted by Jews and Freemasons and murdered for revealing the dark secrets of their Luciferean Order."

IV

Jacob Schiff, together with other high-ranking Jewish Freemasons, did everything they could to punish Russia and introduce their cruel slave system—the cruelest the world has ever seen (since the Akkadians). Hundreds of millions of people would suffer and die in their gulags before the fall of the Soviet State at the end of the Cold War.

In New York, on 27 March 1917, Trotsky (age 37), along with his family and 275 international Jewish terrorists and other mercenary adventurers embarked on the ship Kristianiafjord bound for Europe to complete their "revolution" in Russia. Various criminals, Americanized Jewish communists and Wall Street brokers accompanied them, as well. The most interesting statement made by Trotsky was that "Russia is 'our country' freed by the revolution."

On 3 April 1917, as the Kristianiafjord stopped at Halifax, Nova Scotia, the Canadian Border Police arrested Leon Trotsky, taking his wife and their two children into custody. Five other "Russian socialists" were also arrested: Nikita Mukhin, Leiba Fishelev, Konstantin Romanenko, Grigori Chudnovsky, and Gershon Melichansky. Trotsky's close comrades Volodarsky and Uritsky remained on board the vessel.

Trotsky had been arrested because of a telegram that had been sent from London on 29 March 1917, which revealed that Bronstein (Trotsky) and his socialist companions were on their way to Russia to start a revolution against its government. Trotsky had been given 10,000 dollars by the Jews in Germany for this purpose. Indeed, upon searching Trotsky, the police discovered that amount. He explained that the money was given him by the "Germans" but had no further comment on the matter.

The Canadians suspected Bronstein (Trotsky) of collaboration with the "Germans"; but, it was the Jewish-manipulated British Secret Service, whose agent Trotsky was, that wanted to clear Trotsky of all suspicion: (This manoeuvre can be confirmed by documents in the Canadian National Archives). Canadian officials were even given instructions that Trotsky not be forced to labour in the detention camps (as Jews are not only usurious, but they despise physical effort and practical work and prefer to leech off of the blood, sweat and tears of trueborn nationalists).

British authorities knew that the Jewish-dominated German General Staff had been financing Kerensky, Lenin and other Jewish agitators in Russia, since 1915. Suddenly, a counter-order to release Leiba Bronstein and his cronies came from the British Embassy in Washington, D.C. The Embassy had received a demand from the Jewish-infiltrated American State Department in Washington to release the international terrorist, as Trotsky was "an American citizen" with an American passport. More-so, the Jews in Washington were bold enough to demand that the Canadians should assist Bronstein (Trotsky) in every way possible.

According to American explanations, it was Kerensky who wanted to have Trotsky (Bronstein) released. Trotsky was actually released five days later, on May 4th. Later, everything possible was done to hide the facts from the Canadian folk, since the authorities knew that they had, through releasing Trotsky, prolonged the Great War.

After Trotsky, another 8000 Yiddish-speaking Jewish terrorists arrived in Russia.

On 7 September 1914, Estonian socialist Aleksander Keskula had suggested to the German ambassador to Switzerland, Gisbert von Romberg, that Lenin be used as a Trojan horse to induce Russia into signing a separate peace with Germany. In 1815, Jewish Freemason Alexander Parvus (Israel Gelfand), who had organized the revolution of 1905, was instructed to enlist Lenin and his comrades as German agents! Keskula also passed on 250,000 marks to the Bolsheviks. The goal of the filthy Jews in Germany was to have the Bolsheviks enter into a separate peace agreement with Germany after they seized power in Russia. Parvus later claimed that he had pulled many of the strings behind the coup in February 1917, whilest he was living on Stureplan Square, in Stockholm, in The Netherlands.

On 2 April 1917, Count Ulrich von Brockdorff-Rantzau sent a secret telegram from Copenhagen to the Ministry of the Interior in Berlin, saying: "We must immediately try to bring about as wide-spread chaos as possible in Russia. At the same time, we must avoid visibly involving ourselves in the course of the Russian Revolution. But, in secret, we should do everything to increase antagonism between the moderate and extreme parties, since we are quite interested in the victory of the latter because the coup d'état would then be unavoidable."

Lenin's passage to Russia was approved by Chancellor Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, a member of the Jewish Bethmann banking family of Frankfurt-am-Main. On April 8th, Lenin and his group began their journey from Bern, Switzerland, to Petrograd (in Russia).

> "We neither knew nor foresaw the danger to humanity from the consequences of this dispatch of the Bolsheviks to Russia."
> German Major General Max Hoffmann

The train carriage in which Lenin and his 32 companions traveled was not sealed, as another myth has it. The German authorities had asked the "revolutionaries" not to leave the carriage, whereof two German officers had been sent to accompany them. Lenin arrived at Stockholm Central Station just before 10 a.m., on Friday, 13 April 1017. Stockholm's socialist Mayor Carl Lindhagen met Lenin and his companions at the Central Station.

There was one socialist politician, Erik Palmstierna, who suspected how dangerous Lenin might become and therefore suggested organizing a police provocation at the station and having Lenin shot in the resulting tumult. The others just laughed at him.

Lenin stayed just over eight hours in Stockholm, Sweden; spending most of that time at the Hotel Regina, on Drottninggatan; and, on that same evening, he continued on to Haparanda at 6:37 p.m. Before his departure, the Swedish socialists had time to buy a suit and the world-famous cap for him at the department store PUB. At the same time, Lenin met Hans Steinwachs, who was the chief of German espionage in Scandinavia.

Union leader Fabian Mansson organized a collection among the Members of Parliament. Even right-wing Swedish Foreign Minister Arvid Lindman gave Lenin 100 crowns—a lot of money then—as one Freemason helped another. The Swedish refugee assistance committee gave Lenin 3000 crowns, as well.

On April 16th, Lenin arrived at Petrograd's Finland station at 11:10 p.m. He was greeted by Nikolai Chkheidze, a Freemason, who was the chairman of the Petrograd Soviet, who gave him flowers and a welcoming speech. On April 17th, Steinwachs sent the following telegram to Berlin: "Lenin's journey to Russia went well. He will act in precisely the way we want him to."

A total of 25,000+ international "revolutionaries" (viz. Jewish terrorists) arrived in Russia

> "The old Europe is dying. Sentencing to death the empires, monarchies and the aristocracy is the end towards which all possible efforts will be made."
> Giuseppe Mazzini, an Illuminati leader

In 1914, Lenin had been initiated into the most subversive Masonic Lodge of the Grand Orient—The Nine Sisters. The Jewish Freemasons counted on the ignorant labourers not seeing the Shadow of Hermes within the movement they had created in order to further enslave their victims. In the beginning, the Swedish Freemasons were so self-assured that they didn't even bother to hide the symbolic connection between social democracy and Freemasonry, which had been emblazoned upon their union banner since 1883.

The common workers were betrayed by one means… and the bourgeoisie by another.

In July 1917, information about Lenin's and Trotsky's contacts with German intelligence was leaked to the newspapers. But the Zionist Occupied Government (ZOG) prohibited publication of these sensitive documents. On July 18th, one small newspaper, The Living Word, ignored the prohibition and published Grigori Alexinsky's and Vasili Pankratov's article about Germany's Jews funding Lenin's party. The Jewish money was transferred from the German Imperial Bank in Berlin via Nya Banken (Olof Aschberg), in Stockholm, to the Bank of Siberia, in Petrograd. The next day, other newspapers also began publishing telegrams reporting transfers of Jewish Deutschmarks to the Bolsheviks in Petrograd under various innocent pretexts.

The Bolshevik's agent in Stockholm helped smuggle some of the Jewish blood-money into Petrograd in a courier's bag. This was evident from Lenin's correspondence with Ganetsky-Furstenberg. All this was extremely embarrassing to the Jewish Provisional Government, in Russia.

Lenin began publishing a large number of newspapers and periodicals—a total of 41. Using their blood-money, the Bolsheviks paid out 10-to-70 roubles for participating in strikes or demonstrations, and 120-to-149 roubles for acts of violence.

On July 20th, the Provisional Government ordered the arrest of Lenin, Grigori Zinoviev and Leon Kamenev (Rosenfeld). Two days later, on July 22nd, Lenin, together with Zinoviev, left Petrograd. The most remarkable and puzzling thing about it is that no one, despite the arrest order, sought to apprehend Lenin. No one wanted to arrest them despite the fact that the Soviet propaganda later claimed the opposite.

Minister of Justice, Alexander Kerensky became Prime Minister.

As prosecutor, Andrei Vyshinsky was responsible for bringing the Bolsheviks to justice. During the Stalin era he sent several Bolsheviks to their deaths as convicted British agents.

In August 1917, an alleged "Red Cross delegation" travelled to Russia with the intention of discussing the final details of a "Red" assumption of power with them. Of the members of this delegation—seven were doctors, but the others were Jewish bankers in New York, including John P. Morgan and Jacob Schiff.

On September 1st, Lavr Kornilov, Commander in Chief of the Russian Army, ordered his Cossacks to attack Petrograd. On September 7th, Kornilov remarked (to his chief of staff): "It is time to hang the supporters from Germany as spies—starting with Lenin. And we must destroy the Soviets, so that they can never assemble again."

Kerensky was seized with panic. During Kornilov's uprising, both the Provisional Government and the Bolsheviks, in general, had cooperated against him. Otherwise… the game was up for both men. Lenin had "forgotten" his slogan: "No support of the Provisional Government!"

According to the State Department Archives, David Francis, the American ambassador to Petrograd, was kept well-informed of the Bolshevik's plans. The White House had known, at least six weeks in advance, when the Bolsheviks would take over power—that event had been arranged to take place on November 8th, which happened to coincide with Trotsky's birthday.

The President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, knew in advance that the Bolshevik takeover would prolong the Great War. But he did nothing to stop their plans. On the contrary, he did everything in his power to aid them. The United States (i.e., the Wall Street Jewish bankers) was the only nation to make a huge profit on the war. All the other warring powers lost gigantic sums and came to owe (((them))) a total of 14 billion dollars. It has been calculated that those (((international financial terrorists))) made a grand total of 208 billion dollars from the Great War.

The British government also knew about the Bolshevik's plans, since they also recommended that their subjects quit Russia, at least six weeks before the takeover.

The authorities knew perfectly well that Lenin was in Petrograd. Lenin's sister, Maria, confirmed this to an official. Yet, the Provisional Government did not in any way try to pursue or apprehend him.

The Bolshevik plans to seize power were no secret. The general public was not ignorant of them… and, least of all, the Provisional Government. On October 31st, Zinoviev and Kamenev wrote quite openly of their plans in the newspaper Novaya Zhiznion. Lenin had also spoken publicly on those plans on a number of occasions.

The authorities knew of the Bolshevik's plans in detail: So why, unless they were involved in the conspiracy, did they do nothing about it? Kerensky refused to order special troops to Petrograd when it was suggested he do so.

Trotsky had, by October 25th, formed a military revolutionary committee. On November 3rd, power was transferred to this committee in secret. Lenin, who was born on 23 April 1870 (and not on the 22nd), didn't even bother to organize the take over; it was Trotsky who organized everything—and he didn't even want to allow the quasi-Jew Lenin into Smolny, the headquarters of the conspirators. When power was finally in the hands of the Bolsheviks, Lenin said to Trotsky (in German): "Es schwindelt!" ("I am dizzy!")

At around six o'clock, the principal of the Artillery Academy in Mikhailovsk ordered his cadets to leave the Winter Palace. The Cossacks also left. The Winter Palace was simply surrendered to the Bolsheviks.

Theatre performances continued that evening, and the restaurants remained open. Nobody noticed that anything unusual had happened. At 2:35 p.m., on November 7th, Trotsky confirmed that the Provisional Government no longer existed. At 10 o'clock, the Soviet Congress proclaimed: "Government power lies with the Military Revolutionary Committee!"

The Red Guards waited outside the Winter Palace, for a while, despite the absence of guards at the side door. There was no storming of the Winter Palace. Everything proceeded calmly. No blood was spilled. The Red Guards merely waited until 1:30 a.m. and coolly walked in through the unguarded entrances; they strolled about casually in the halls and corridors, greeting the "defenders"—who did nothing to resist—in a friendly manner.

The Member of the Military Revolutionary Committee—a friend of Trotsky—Vladimir Antonov Ovseyenko, and his Red Guards reached the Malachite Hall just before two o'clock and waited behind a door leading into the council chamber of the Provisional Government, which had, against all reason, gathered there (without Kerensky). Why?

Ovseyenko just stood looking at the clock. Red Guards and sailors also stood by waiting for Ovseyenko's signal. The all stood there for about ten minutes. At 2:10, Ovseyenko spoke to the Red Guards, saying: "Para!" ("It is time!") He opened the door and said something very cryptic: "Gentlemen! Your time is up!"

A closer astrological investigation reveals that the sun was just then in the precise center of the sign of Scorpio (14°58'). Scorpio is the eighth sign of the zodiac—the sign of crime and death.

Trotsky had his 38th birthday on 26 October (8 November) 1917… and the entire spectacle became his birthday party.

The Bolsheviks lost the parliamentary election but continued to govern. On 5 January 1918, when the masses protested at the opening of the Constitutional Assembly, the Red Guards fired on the Russian people and killed ten. Then the Bolsheviks began openly plundering and terrorizing people under the slogan: "Steal that which has been stolen!"

Lenin seized enormous riches. The Jewish Chekists arrested whole families and tortured the children in front of their parents and raping wives and daughters before their husbands—to extract any hidden gold they might have had. This sick business was a gigantic robbery of the poor Russian folk. The New York Herald Tribune wrote: "It looks as if the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia is, in reality, one enormous financial operation with the objective being to transfer the control of enormous sums from the Russian folk to European and American banks (viz. Jewish banks)."

Kuhn, Loeb & Co. had, through their German affiliates, provided Leon Trotsky with 20 million dollars to organize the Bolshevik takeover—and, within 6 months, they were compensated, receiving $102,290,000 back, according to the New York Times of 23 August 1921. All who were involved in the tragic conspiracy made enormous amounts through the suffering of the Russian folk.

Jacob Schiff gave orders to liquidate the Tsar and his entire family at once. The order was delivered to Politbureau member Jakov Sverdlov by the Jews of the American Delegation, which were then located in the town of Vologda. Sverdlov's reports were channeled back to Schiff through the same God-damned Jews.

Sverdlov ordered Yankel Yarovsky to execute the Holy Romanov family in the basement of the house where they had been imprisoned—belonging to Nikolai Ipatiev in Yakaterinburg.

Lenin stole a fortune of plundered art, gems and other valuables—all of which were sold—the blood-money being deposited with Jewish bankers in Switzerland. In 1920 alone, Lenin had transferred 75 million Swiss francs into his account.

Trotsky had at least two personal bank accounts in the United States which had a total of 80 million dollars and he had another 90 million Swiss francs in Swiss banks.

Moisei Uritsky (Boretsky) had 85 million Swiss francs; Felix Dzerzhinsky (Rufin) 80 million; and Ganetsky, 60 million Swiss francs and 10 million dollars.

All these savageries were justified using the ideology created by the Illuminati to mislead the world into accepting Communism.

V

Marx was a 31st degree Freemason. In February 1848 he had published—by order of the Masonic leadership—the Communist Manifesto.

Here Marx is showing the Masonic sign of Master Mason, just as other Freemasons before and after him—an enigmatic sign also seen in "Duncan's Ritual of Freemasonry."

To initiate the Red Terror, the Bolsheviks needed a pretext. Thus, at around ten o'clock, on the morning of 30 August 1918, Moisei Uritsky arrived in his car. He was the chairman of the Petrograd Cheka. Uritsky was infamous as the "Butcher of Petrograd." He enjoyed watching executions from his office window… until he was murdered.

The suspect in Uritsky's murder was 22 year old technical student Leonid Kannegisser—and had been organized by Dzerzhinsky's protégé Gleb Boky, who succeeded Uritsky. (Freemason Boky would feed the flesh of those which had been executed to the wild beasts at the zoo.)

The central organization of the Cheka, headed by Lenin and Dzerzhinsky, was behind Uritsky's murder. It was Lenin who personally gave the order to murder Uritsky—and also to stage an attempt on his own life… as a pretext to immediately initiate a program of mass terror against the Russian folk.

Uritsky's murder was his punishment for stealing some of the confiscated riches behind Lenin's back—together with Volodarsky (Moisei Goldstein) and Freemason Andronnikov, chief of the Cheka in Kronstadt. The booty had been sold via certain Jewish banks in Scandinavia (amongst them, the Nya Banken, which was owned by Olof Aschberg.

The thieves had stolen goods worth a total of 2.5 billion gold roubles.

Kannegisser was never brought to trial… but was killed illegally.

Volodarsky had been murdered in June. Uritsky investigated the murder—and had found out the truth about it. Because of that he was killed.

Fanny Kaplan was half-blind and could not shoot. Still, she was accused of staging the attempt on Lenin's life.

> "Even if 90% of the Russian people perish, it will have been worthwhile if the other 10% live to see 'world revolution'"
> Lenin

The special commission of the Cheka, which was the secret political police, procured dungeons and killing grounds where they exterminated as many 'class enemies' as possible.

> "We can annihilate a whole social class!"
> Grigori Zinovyev, Lenin's lover

Here are the victims of Communism in Kharkov, Ukraine.

The evil of Communism is bottomless.

> "The more representatives of the bourgeoisie and the reactionary priesthood we shoot the better. We must use all cunning and illegalities to methodically deny and hide the truth. We can and must write in language that inflames the masses to disgust and hatred of those who are not in agreement with us."
> Lenin

Lists of those shot or otherwise executed were published in the Cheka's weekly newspaper. In this way it can be proven that 1.7 million Russian folk were executed between 1918-and-1919. A river of blood flowed through Russia. The Cheka had to employ body counters.

According to official Soviet reports (May 1922): 1,695,904 Russians were exterminated from January 1921 to April 1922: Among these victims were: bishops, professors, doctors, military officers, policemen, gendarmes, lawyers, civil servants, journalists, writers, artists, nurses, workers and farmers.

Their crime was "anti-social thinking."

Eyes were poked out and ears and noses were cut off. Chekists (i.e., Jews) in Kharkov placed their victims in a row and nailed their hands to a table, cut around their writs with a knife, pouring boiling water over the hands and pulled the skin off. In other places, the victim's heads were placed on an anvil and slowly crushed with a steam hammer. Those due to undergo the same punishment the next day were forced to watch.

The eyes of church dignitaries were poked out, their tongues were cut off and they were buried alive. There were Chekists (i.e., Jews) who would cut open the stomachs of their victims, following which they pulled out parts of the small intestine which they nailed to a telegraph pole and, with whips, forced their poor victims to run circles around the pole until the whole intestine had been unraveled and the poor soul perished.

The bishop of Voronezh was boiled alive in a huge cauldron, after which the monks, with revolvers pointed at their heads, were forced to consume this soup. In Odessa, military officers were boiled in a huge bowl The upper "pawas" sawn off and the nearest in the art of the skull line was forced to eat the brain, following which the procedure wouldst be repeated to the end of the line.

In Kharkov, people were scalped. In Voronezh, the torture victims were placed in wooden barrels into which huge nails were hammered through and stuck out on the inside, then the barrels were sent rolling. A five-pointed star was burned into the foreheads of the victims. In Tsaritsyn and Kamyshin, the hands of the victims were amputated with a saw. In Poltava and Kremenchug, victims were impaled. In Odessa, they were roasted alive in ovens or ripped to pieces. In Kiev, the victims were placed inside coffins with decomposing corpses and buried alive, only to be dug up again after half-an-hour.

Still, Lenin was not satisfied! and demanded: "More power to the terror."

An immediate goal was the establishment of the "Gulag Archipelago"—a system of slave labour camps.

A 5 September 1918 article in "The Decrees of the Red Terror" read: "The Soviet Republic must rid itself of class enemies by isolating them in concentration camps…"

One had to choose—either join the (((evil Jews))) or side with the ordinary Russian folk.

VI

"No liberty, equality or fraternity"

Freemason Karl Marx described in his poetry the world of which he dreamed:

"If there is something which devours, I'll leap within it, through which I will bring the world to ruins.
The world which bulks between me and the abyss
I will smash to pieces with my enduring curses."

Marx's hateful doctrines were used by the Communist Freemasons to justify the horrors they visited upon our civilized world.

In 1918, Lenin sent enormous sums of money to the Grand Orient for the renovation of their Paris headquarters, and for its propaganda and other operations—all this whilest many millions of ordinary Russian folk were being starved to death.

The new regime, with Leon Trotsky as its leader, had prominent Russian poet Sergei Yesenin liquidated. In his poem, "Country of the Crooks," he had called the Jewish tyrants "parasites" and said that the Soviet Republic was nothing but a bluff. He also described Trotsky's growing hatred of Russian culture.

Trotsky was a cynic and a sadist of the worst sort. He often executed his victims personally. He even murdered children—and ordered others to murder children, aw well. Grinning, he would order "disciplinary executions." His cruelties are well-documented in the archives of the Communist Party. Russian officers and their families were also executed… for disobeying orders. Lenin's and Trotsky's cruelty and mercilessness became the defining feature of the Jewish Soviet's power.

The Krasnaya Gazeta revealed the Soviet regime's goal. Even during the civil war in 1920, Trotsky had begun to make plans for the militarization of the economy, so as to bring it in line with War Communism. He needed militarized slaves. Peasants and workers would have the same status as conscripted soldier and formed "work-units comparable to military units" (work battalions) led by commanders. Each individual was a "soldier of labour" who cannot be his own masters—if ordered to move off his land, he must obey; if he refused, he was called a deserter and was punished (usually with death).

"It is not true that forced labour is unproductive in all circumstances."
Trotsky

Factories were ruled with iron discipline. The Bolshevik leadership began executing workers as "deserters." Many were arrested. Trotsky said that all those demanding free speech, a free press and free trade unions would be shot "like ducks in a pond" or "like dogs."

As early as 1917, Lenin had stressed that the workers needed no liberty, equality or fraternity.

In Petrograd, th Soviet leader Grigori Zinovyev promised to kill ten million Russian folk and make believing communists of the rest…

During the famine of 1921-22, another 5,053,000 people perished. The Bolsheviks, headed by Lenin, managed to send over 30 million Russian folk to their deaths—during their first four years in power, including 8 million peasant serfs. Lenin announced there was no money to help the hungry much less for culture.

According to the myth, Lenin always thought first of others…but, in reality, he wanted to kill all of Russia's 60 million peasants! "Kill them all!" he shouted. .

It was thought that attractive Russian youths were prone to become intellectuals… therefore they were all killed as a danger to society. History does not record a more repulsive crime.

The Bolshevik Freemasons needed human sacrifice. According to Lenin, they sacrificed people to Moloch. This was revealed by defecting Bolshevik leader Georges Solomon in his book: "Among the Red Rulers." So, after all this, what could the survivors expect!?

During Christmas 1923, only a few weeks before his death, Lenin sat on his balcony and howled at the moon like a wild dog. In his final spasms, he drooled, saying (in German): "Weiter, weiter!" The God-damned son-of-a-bitch died at 6:30 p.m., on 21 January 1924. His autopsy revealed that the left half of his brain was shriveled and deformed.

VII

In August 1927, Stalin managed to manoeuvre Trotsky out of the Party—and, on 16 January 1928, Trotsky was exiled to Alma-Ata, in Kazakhstan. He was then expelled to Turkey… and, later, lived in Norway and in Mexico. On 20 August 1940, by the order of Stalin, NKVD agent Ramon Mercader crushed Trotsky's skull with an ice pick. The dirty bastard died one day later, on 21 August 1940.

Rockefeller hired the advertizing agency of Ivy Lee to paint the Bolsheviks in war, with friendly colours. The Soviet propaganda enticed 100,000 American workers to go to Russia. Some who had begun protesting and criticizing communism ended up in prison camps. This shows how truly frightened the Jewish authorities were of the American folk learning of any detailed information concerning conditions in the "Communist paradise." One of those fools who journeyed to the "Communist hell" was Andrew Smith. When he finally awoke to the truth and fled the Soviet Union, he warned other blue-eyed folk about entering the dangerous trap.

80,000 German folk also relocated to find work in Stalin's empire.

Slave labour was used everywhere. Building the White Sea Canal, 1000 labourers died every day during its' 20 months of construction—a total of 600,000 lives were lost in constructing the canal. When necessary, the nearest slave was pushed alive into a hole and cemented into the canal wall. The 227 km long White Sea Canal was finished on 2 August 1933, whence Stalin himself came to inspect it.

In the Ukraine, in 1932-33, collectivization of agriculture was followed by famine—on a scale never seen before. Political activists hauled away every speck of grain and every egg, every vegetable and every piece of fruit. Conveys of trucks carried all the food away. Every Ukrainian who was suspected of the least, often invented, attempt at lessening the full impact of the terror famine or of hiding foodstuffs from the Jewish authorities, was either shot or sent to labour in the gulag camps. Children orphaned by the terror famine were killed in specially established slaughterhouses… and their meat later sold off as food.

Almost 15 million good Ukrainian folk died during the horrible man-made famine. The official Jewish Soviet slogan was very cynical: "All for the good of the people and all in the sake of the people's happiness."

VIII

Russia's economy went downhill after the October coup. American aid was sorely needed. Rockefeller paid particular attention to building up the Soviet war machine. American experts admitted that Communism would have easily collapsed if the first 5-year plan had not been financed by the Jews in America—later pogroms against the Russian folk had been at least partly funded by them, too.

The ignorance of these ignoble Jews in Russia constantly created new problems (for the Russian folk). The rich Jews in America continued to breathe life into this fragile inefficient and brutal system, despite all the difficulties. These Jews in Russia were often incapable of building any sophisticated factories, even though their kindred in America gave them detailed plans. This led to building contractor Albert Kahn, a Jew living in Detroit, to close a deal with Moscow in 1930, under which he was to construct a number of industries in the Soviet Union. The total cost amounted to 2 billion dollars. His closest assistants served as advisors to the Soviet government during the second 5-year plan.

By 1937, another 18 million good Russian folk had died in *the waves of terror launched by Stalin's henchman Lazar Kaganovich. This, in addition to the 30 million who had already perished during the collectivization and *the famines, set the stage for the launching of the Great Terror in 1937. People were executed in waves. One such wave washed over Moscow and Leningrad, on 30 October 1937, when an exceptionally large number of Russian folk were killed by the Jewish Soviets.

Kaganovich had the first plans for mass extermination drawn up in July 1937. The Jewish NKVD was to imprison 268,950 Russian folk during a four month period—of which, 75,950 were to be murdered immediately. When Kaganovich realized that the pace was progressing to slowly, local functionaries were required to forward proposed solutions to the Politburo, concerning the problem of the slow pace of killing—and, adopting all suggestions, these God-damned Jews murdered another 48,000+ Russian folk—another 7 million became political prisoners during the years 1937-38.

Alexander Solzhenitsyn estimated the total number of Russian folk executed in 1937-38 as 1 million… with another 2 million slowly dying off in the gulag work camps. In 1992, Literaturnaya Rossiya published the largest estimate of the total number of Russian folk which fell victim to the Jewish Soviet regime at 147 million, including those who died of induced starvation and civil war.

The systematic killing of children began in 1934. After all… their upkeep cost money. Between 1935-and-1939 alone, 92,000 12-to-16 year olds were prosecuted. On 1 April 1939, 10,000 minors were sent to slowly die slaving in the gulag work camps. In October 1940, the Jewish Chekists imprisoned up to a million children between the ages of 14-and-17 years of age. Jewish NKVD units had kidnapped those children in various Russian cities and immediately herded them off like cattle into the prison camps, where most of them died of starvation and/or were worked to death. And, in 1943, the Chekists managed to collect another 2 million children.

On 6 July 1941, to overcome the economic problems, Stalin planned Operation Thunder—an attack against Germany and other Western nations. To execute his plan, Stalin had entered into two treaties: the first being the Ribbentrop-Molotov pact signed with Germany on 23 August 1939; and the second, the Stalin-Churchill pact, signed with England on 15 October 1939, which was more favourable… as Churchill was a Jew, as well.

On 8 February 1940, Churchill, as Secretary of State for War, signed the executive documents of this pact in London.

The Soviet Union did not get any bases in Finland, so, on 30 October 1939, cowardly Stalin attacked Finland without any provocation, nor having made any formal declaration of war. The Winter War was thus initiated.

On 21 June 1940, the Soviets admitted troops to bases in Bessarabia (Moldova), Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia—and coups d'état were initiated in the three Baltic States—Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia. Next, those God-damn Jews instituted *the Communist terror.

> "Now the sun from Stalin's constitution shines upon us and, in fact, it already has."
> Johannes Vares Barbarus

Here we see the victims of the Jewish Communists in Estonia, including Tartu, where the executed were thrown into the prison's well

On the night of 14 June 1941, tens of thousands of folk from the Baltic States were deported to Siberia. The Jewish Communists wanted to deport over 700,000 Estonians—and leave just 358,000 behind in Estonia as administrators… but there was not enough time. Estonia had hundreds of international revolutionary Jews flood in from different countries, to terrorize, torture and kill its very best people in accord with standard Communist practice. Among them came Idel Jakobson from Latvia, who became head of the NKVD's investigative faction. He sent many good Estonian folk to their deaths.

Like Lenin, many Estonians questioned: "What is Soviet power!?" The answer was simple enough: prison, mass murder and slave labour.

IX

On 22 June 1941, Hitler's troops invaded the Soviet Empire to pre-empt an obvious Soviet intention to attack Germany. German intelligence had learned of this—and prepared a counterplan: Operation Barbarossa.

3.8 million Russian soldiers gave themselves up—refusing to fight, kill or die for the God-damned Jew Stalin.

The Germans invaded Estonia, which was a hellhole of suffering under the Jewish Communists. The Germans were enthusiastically greeted as liberators. They allowed the Estonian folk to keep their national flag.

During the Good War, the NKVD's head, Lavrenti Beria, was an infamous butcher, who hid his crimes by blaming them on the Nazis: (cf. the Katyn Forest massacre in Poland).He sent 20 million people to the gulag slave labour camps. In the German camps things were run differently…

After Germany's defeat by the tripartite Jewish world conspiracy of the U.S.A., Great Britain and the Soviet Union, newly established territories in Eastern Europe were simply handed over by the Western powers to the dirty Soviet Jews in Russia.

In 1946, the Soviet Union started to tempt its refugees into returning—foremost from France—tens of thousands of Russian emigrants which chose to believe the Jewish propaganda and hoping that the Communists had become more humane returned. Their awakening to the truth was brutal. Those trusting fools had no idea that the Soviet Union had great need of new slaves. The younger, stronger and generally healthier folk were quickly rounded up and sent forthwith to a slow death in slave labour camps—the gulags. The older, weaker, sickly folk were immediately shot—and families separated forever… never to be reunited.

This was done in the harbour of Odessa.

Millions of slaves were needed—and new slave camps were established for foreigners… with the tacit consent of the Jewish-controlled Western leaders. Under a decree that had been signed by Lenin in 1919 (on which it was written "Publication prohibited!") all foreigners were goy and "of no value." Foreign wives had their passports confiscated. They were all interred in concentration camps—a practice they had perfected since first initiating them in South Africa during the Boer Wars.

On 5 July 1945, John Noble, an American, was imprisoned in what remained of Dresden (after Allied bombing—a war crime). The fact that he was in possession of Swiss diplomatic immunity did not save him or his family. He was sentenced to 15 years of hard labour in a slave camp at Vorkuta—a destination from which no one ever returned.

> "I can still remember the day when General Maslenikov came to Vorkuta. He visited our camp as well as many other camps. He asked us to stand up, telling us that 'everyone had the freedom to speak without being punished.' No one spoke up. He repeated his statement time-after-time, again-and-again until finally about twenty men stood up. The first man was a professor of history from the University of Leningrad; he said: 'I know that for what I have to say I will receive at least another ten years.' General Maslenikov replied: 'No! No! Nothing will happen to you--you have the freedom to speak.' So, this professor recalled every state of slavery in the history of mankind—and when he came to the present situation, he said: 'General! Never in the history of humanity has there been a system of slavery more brutal and inhumane as the slavery which we are experiencing here, now.' He did not receive another ten years…! He was shot!"
> John Noble

In Vorkuta, there were a total of 2 million slaves who were worked to death in 40 coal mines and cement and brick factories. Documents reveal that over 60,000 foreigners, including Finns and Romanians, were taken to Pechora in Komi. It was not until 1955 that war criminal President Eisenhower demanded the release of John Noble. And he was finally released in that same year.

In the 1950s, the new Russian dictator, Nikita Khrushchev, released more than 200,000 foreigners from 45 different countries which had been imprisoned in the gulags.

X

In 1845, in Nieder-Schlesien, the Red Army came across 25 large railway cars containing highly sensitive archival material, including documents from various Masonic Lodges in France, Belgium, Holland, Luxemburg, Poland and Czechoslovakia. These documents established a comprehensive picture of the secret power wielded by the international Jews and their role in Freemasonry. All the material was taken to Moscow, where it formed the basis of the Special Archives of the Soviet Union (Osoby Arkhiv, O.J.). By means of these secret Masonic documents, Stalin could blackmail many Western Masonic politicians—all of which feared that their highly sensitive activities would be revealed (and they would be held accountable for their crimes against humanity).

Minutes taken at a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Germany in 1917 record the following statement: "The anarchist and revolutionary Lenin actually and consistently represented the political ideals of international Freemasonry." Here are also found many essential Masonic documents concerning the role of secret societies in world politics—something of which President John F. Kennedy spake about before (((our enemies))) killed him.

Stalin became a serious threat to the Party elite, who decided to eliminate him. One of the conspirators against him was Lazar Kaganovich, a member of the Politburo. Stalin's usual medical tablets were exchanged for others, which Molotov called "rat poison." Beria, who also felt threatened, developed his own plan, code-named "Mozart." He made sure that Stalin did not receive medical care for 12-to-13 hours—and Stalin died three days later, on 5 March 1953.

After Stalin's death, several revolts broke out in various slave labour camps throughout the Gulag Archipelago, wherein the Jewish Communists held 22 million slaves. The revolt in Vorkuta started on 1 August 1953… but, terror was ongoing even under Nikita Khrushchev. Among other notorieties, he gave the order to test an atomic bomb on human beings near the village of Tolskoye—and one was so detonated on 14 September 1954.

XI

The Communist takeover of China had been planned from as early as the Potsdam Conference in the summer of 1945. The international finance Jews in the United States wished to conceal its role in the process, which has been confirmed by Owen Lattimore, a representative of the State Department.

> "The problem was how to allow them [China] to fall without making it look as if the United States had pushed them {into it}."
> Owen Lattimore

In the beginning, the Chinese pro-Communists murdered one-another off because of differing political convictions. Then they began to eat people! Just killing them off wasn't enough for them—only by eating the flesh of their enemies could they prove their class-consciousness. First, they would torture people; then, they would cut open their victims" stomachs whilest they were yet alive—and, as if slaughtering swine, they would cut out the heat and liver, chop them up and devour the pieces. At the highest point of this horrible epidemic, human meat was even prepared for the dining rooms of the revolutionary committee of the town of Wuxuan.

140 million people which fell victim to Communism in China alone.

As time progressed, the dysfunction of the Soviet Union became increasingly obvious. It was time to liquidate the faltering system. In the spring of 1990, the Soviet Union faced an acute currency crisis, the gross domestic product had dropped to 2%--inflation was 23% annually, and there were shortages of every kind of consumer goods. A wave of strikes made the situation worse. In 1991, between 14-and-19 billion dollars in foreign currency was sent abroad. As a result, production was driven down… drastically. The Soviet Union collapsed.

After the breakdown of Communism in Russia, many Communist Jews reinvented themselves as Freemasonic criminals all over Eastern Europe. In the Ukraine, President Leonid Kravtchuk was initiated into Freemasonry, as were the Minister of Defense, the National Prosecutor, and even a popular pop star (Josef Kobzon). In the center of Kiev, was a well-known Masonic symbol, a pillar which was found in every Lodge (in New York and Dallas, Texas).

In Estonia, dishonest people sought protection in secret societies—as did Arno Köörna, Party Secretary at Tartu University and a Communist informer who became a Grand Master in Estonia. Because of him, hundreds of teachers and students were persecuted. It can be seen that Silvio Berlusconi and other Western politicians received protection for their criminal activities in secret societies. Berlusconi's membership number in the notorious P2 Lodge was #1816.

On 1 November 1993, the European Union (EU) was founded under the zodiac sign of Scorpio. In the organization of European Freemason, a circle of 24 chain links and 12 stars was symbolic of Freemasonic reformation—and is very much similar to the current EU flag.

The Illuminatist Bilderberg meeting of 2003 took note of Jose Manuel Barroso—and, in the following year, was hailed as the leader of the European Union. .

John Quincy Adams (American President, 1825-1829) was of the opinion that "Masonry ought forever to be abolished."

> "It is wrong—essentially wrong—a seed of evil, which can never produce any good. The existence of such an Order is a foul blot upon the morals of a community."
> John Quincy Adams

Nevertheless, Freemasonry continues to persistently plague us freeborn folk in ever-changing new ways. Globalism is the same old Communism… a terribly destructive lie of a different sort. Its chief goal is to destroy national consciousness, which is the greatest threat to Jewish international 'fiat criminals' and world-wide Freemasonry.

Hermes sneers at our human ignorance, because so many people still cannot see through the deceptions of Freemasonry—and, those sleeping dreamers continue to believe in their world domination schemes. So, fellows, do not believe anything these devilish power-mongers tell us! We must learn to think for ourselves… and we will thus learn the secrets of the world, which shall be laid bare before us! For even the secret powers of the Jewish-Freemasonic Luciferean cult can be broken. The Illuminati cannot bear the light of truth and they seek to avoid it, just as creepy-crawling vermin hide from the light of the sun. The dark forces will inevitably fail and the light of freedom will once more reach into the souls of men.

Those who ignore the 300 million victims of Communism all share the same moral responsibility
